BIG BREAK ON COTTON

Prices Drop $4 on Bale-Factors Numerous.

New York, April 12.—Another big break in the cotton market occurred today, prices dropping $4 a bale in the first few minutes of trading. The break, following that of yester-day, occurred under heavy general self-ing, particularly from the south, coupled with further rains in Texas and essimistic war news. July touched 20.70. Today's break represents a de-cline of more than $15 a bale from the season's high price.

NEWS of WORLD MARKETS

RAILS LOSE FRACTION

New York. April 13.—Moderate selling of speculative issues, particularly those comprising the several war groups, was induced at the opening of today's stock market by overnight advices from the battle front. Equipments such as Bethlehem Steel, American Car, Baldwin Locomotive and the automobile shares yielded large fractions to 1½ points. Distillers', yesterday's foremost feature, lost a point, and United States Steel, Marine preferred, Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific forfeited considerable fractions with some of the coalers, Liberty bonds were steady.

The more critical stage in the war situation caused renewed selling at the opening of the market. Specialties reacted to 1 to 1½ points and rails yielded substantial fractions to a point. Equipments, motors and some of the minor unclassified issues featured the decline, which was halted later, losses in a few instances being partly recovered. Trading, except in leading shares, was limited to small individual lots. The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 150,000 shares. Liberty 3½s sold at 98.88 to 98.96, first 4s at 96.24 to 96.30 and second 4s at 96.10 to 96.22.

German Drive Losing Pep; U. S. Troops Now Counting in Big Fray

(By Associated Press.) Indications that the German drive in the Armentieres region is losing some of its force are con-tained in today's official news from the battle lines.

Simultaneously American help is counting strongly in the holding of the long Franco-Belgian front at other points, notably in the region east of St. Mihiel, where American toorps have again given a splendid account of themselves in hard fighting in Apremont forest.

The Germans last night returned to the attack on the French positions in Brule wood, in the Apremont region, where French and American troops yesterday repulsed a German thrust. The Americans once more displayed a vigorous resistance, and, in conjunction with the French, beat off the Germans, throwing them out by a counterattack from the one point where an enemy footing was obtained.

In the Flanders fighting the Germans apparently are making their strongest effort in their drive for Bailleul, the important railway point northwest of Armentieres feeding the Messines ridge section. The heaviest fighting last night in this region seems to have been in the Neuve Eglise-Wulverghem sector, between Bailleul and Messines, the Germans directing their thrust here instead of directly below Bailleul and southwest of it, as was indicated yesterday. This engagement was still in progress at a late hour last night.

Elsewhere the British successes were of a positive nature. They stopped the attempt of the Germans to advance west of Merville, where the railway base of Hazebrouck is the objective, repulsing an enemy attack. Likewise, they held up the enemy in his south-westerly push for Bethune, checking him at Locon, three miles north of Bethune, where two heavy attacks were beaten off.

Meanwhile the southerly anchorage of the British line was being strongly held just to the north of Givenchy, where the British not only maintained themselves, but advanced their line slightly near Festubert, charging an important enemy post.

Allied successes were also scored on Somme battle front, the French and British in an united attack near River Luce, southeast of Amiens. where their lines join, driving the Germans completely out of the village of Hangard, which had been penetrated in a German attack during the day, Part of the city of Rheims, close to the battle line, which has been under a German "reprisal" bombardment, is in flames, the Paris war office annces today. The French are working under heavy shellfire to limit the burning area.

land last night, but only two of them eded in penetrating any considerable distance inland. One of these got as far as the midlands and the other nearly peneriated to the northwest English coast. The damage was inconsiderable, most of the bombs being dropped in open country. Five persons were killed and fifteen injured. Through last night's air raids on twenty-four persons were killed and sixty-two wounded.

CONTRACTS THROWN OVER; COTTON BREAKS

New York. April 13.—There was a renewal of yesterday's excited selling and a further sensational break in prices at the opening of the cotton market here today. The opening was weak at declines of 8 to 3 points, and inside of the first fifteen or twenty minutes prices proke 73 to 88 points from last night's closing. It was reported that big southern long lines were liquidated on this break, which carried July contracts of to 30.30c and October to 28.80c, or $17.50 per bale under the high records of a week ago. Week-end reviews of the crop outlook were generally favorable, while the decline was accompanied by reiterated reports of a diminishing spot demand and increased spot offerings. Nervousness over the war situation was also a factor but the break was most generally attributed to the throwing over of long contracts accumulated on the recent advance owing to the favorable crop outlook and apprehensions of spot liquidation.

Rallies of 20 or 30 points followed the tion.

Rallies of 20 or 30 points followed the first big break, but met increased offerings, with the market very weak and unsettled in the late trading. July contracts sold off to 30.28c and October to 28.79c, and the close was barely steady at a net decline of 77 to 113 points.

WELL-KNOWN DENTIST ANSWERS LAST CALL

Dr. Benjamin N. DuPre Victim of Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis.

Dr. Benjamin N. DuPre, aged 57 years, well-known Chattanooga dentist and resident, died Saturday morning at 6 o'clock at his home, 420 East Fifth street, of cerebro-spinal meningitis. He had been sick a week. Funeral services, which are to be private, will take place from Wann's funeral residence, 708 Georgia avenue, Sunday afternoon at 2, with Dr. T. S. McCallie, assi d by Dr. J. W. Bachman, officiating. The interment will take place in Forest Hills cemetery. Pallbearers are announced as Judge S. D. McReynolds, T. Pope Shepherd, George J. Hubbard, Dr. E H. Hunter, Dr. J. B. Vigle and Sam A. LeClerg.

Surviving the deceased are his wife and three children, Benjamin A., who is with the Chattanooga Savings bank; Jessie C. and Arthur Leigh Du-

Pre, Benjamin DuPre was born on May 9, 1860, on his father's plantation at Marietta, Ga. When fierce conflict was waged around Atlanta during the dark days of the Civil war, the Du-Pre family fied to Alabama and set-tled near Gadsden, where the de-ceased spent his early life, and where he later entered the real estate busi-ness. At the age of 23 years he en-tered Vanderbilt university from which institution he graduated with which institution he graduated with honors. For two year following his graduation he taught physiology, anatomy and operative dentistry at Vanderbilt. Deciding to enter active practice for himself, he opened an office at Attalla, Ala., and remained there for some time. When his office was burned he came to Chattanooga and had been a recident of this city since 1890. During that time he city since 1890. During that time he built up a large dental practice, and by his genial manner and sterling qualities made a host of friends. He was interested in the upbuilding of

PROPHECY No. 2

WE BELIEVE:

(A) That a great era of prosperity in this country will immediately follow the close of the war;

(B) That this era of prosperity will greatly advance the value and price of real estate above what it is today;

(C) That many of our people will bemoan the fact that they did not buy real estate now while it is low and reap the advance in prices later on;

(D) That in spite of the war real estate in Chattanooga will become more active this summer and fall as a result of the vast sums of money spent here and the new people coming in.

Why not exercise good judgment and buy a home or a vacant lot now? We can arrange easy terms. See us first for C. V. BROWN & BRO.
